

AUGUST 2021 LIBRARY NEWS

Perry Public Library

Thank You

Thank you to all the participants in the 2021 Summer Library Programs! You read and reviewed books, Zoomed, played Book Bingo, hunted for dragons, earned prizes, and had fun Imagining Your Story with us this summer. We are so glad you joined us! Mark your calendars - Winter Library Programs begin November 1 for adults and children of all ages!

Latino Festival 2021

The library will participate in the 2021 Perry Latino Festival, scheduled for Saturday, August 28. Look for our station on Second Street. Two caricature artists will be on hand to create free personalized art for you! Join the fun, and help us celebrate our diverse community at this annual event. Hope to see you there!

Free Farmers Market Produce

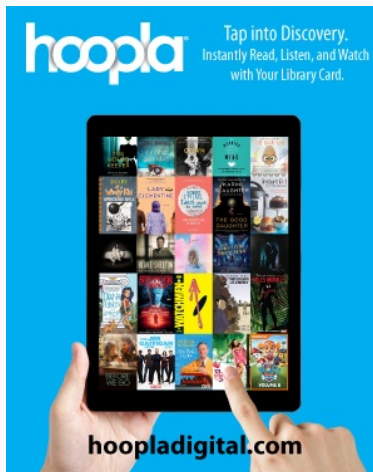

The library will give out free produce at the Perry Farmers Market this summer. The produce will be distributed first come, first served, beginning at 4:00 p.m. on select Farmers Market Thursdays while supply lasts. Watch for updated information about giveaway dates - TBA! We will offer free melon in August and apples in September!
