

Homebound Delivery

Because the Library is committed to serving all citizens, the Library will provide home delivery of library materials.

This service will be provided by volunteers, but if volunteers are not available, staff members will maintain the service.

Homebound rural residents may receive library materials by mail with postage provided by the Library.

Revised July 19, 2018